INTERIOR DESIGN BY JENNIFER MCGEE DESIGN INC., RIDGEWOOD

Interior designer Jennifer McGee wanted to showcase a sophisticated look for the Ridgewood bedroom of a huge New Jersey Devil's hockey team fan. Taking the team colors of red, black and white, Benjamin Moore's Million Dollar Red was the perfect color for the walls, with accompanying bold black and white stripes. The Hunter Douglas white wood blinds with black taping stripes reflect the team's stripe border. Also decorating the walls are round "hockey puck" shaped mirrors, with framed artwork courtesy of the NHL team and framed jersey from Opus One Gallery. Matching Tommy Hilfiger bedding, IKEA rug, and West Elm lacquer end tables complete this hockey haven. >
